10 Read the email. Are the statements true (T), false (F) or not given (NG)?

Hi Luke

How are you? How's the new house? Are you enjoying the nightlife in Buenos Aires?

I started my new job last month so I now have a good routine. I'm enjoying the work, but it's hard because I get up early every day (you know how I like to stay in bed late!). I try and go for a swim most days before work because there's a gym and swimming pool in the building. It's relaxing and I feel very good after the exercise. I'm in the office at 8:30 and first of all I check my emails. You can't imagine how many emails I get every day! Because we're an international company with offices all over the world, we get a lot of emails during the night as well, so we're always busy. There's no time to sit and do nothing! I've got some really nice colleagues and we usually go for lunch together on Fridays. On the other days, I go shopping or I go for a walk when the sun's shining and sometimes I stay at my desk and have a quick sandwich – not very healthy I know.

I don't know many people here, so I like going out at the weekends. Of course I have a lie-in on Saturday and Sunday and if there's an interesting exhibition on, I go to that. I want to join some local clubs as well, maybe hiking or tennis.

I'm having a lazy day today because I'm really tired and it's raining. I stayed in bed until 11 o'clock and now I'm sitting at the computer and writing emails to friends. I'm staying with my cousin at the moment, but I really want my own apartment. It's quite stressful because everything is so expensive here, but I'm looking. My cousin is very kind, but she enjoys doing different things and her lifestyle is quite different from mine.

This evening we're going to a concert together. I'm not sure who is playing, but I think it's a classical concert.

When I have my new apartment, you must come down and stay with me! Write soon and give me your news.

Sing!

Today a lot of singers and actors use their fame to raise money for charity. You only have to go on the internet and you can see just how many things they do. A celebrity name at a charity event can raise thousands of dollars and it is a good way for these people to give something back to the world that has made them rich and famous.

One such person is Scottish singer songwriter Annie Lennox. She was born on 25 December 1954 into a poor family. She grew up and went to school in Aberdeen and when she was seventeen she moved to London and went to the Royal Academy of Music where she studied the flute and classical music for three years.

A few years later she met Dave Stewart and between 1977 and 1980 they were in a group, The Tourists, where she was the lead singer. When the band split up, Annie and Dave formed a new band: Eurythmics. Together they recorded several albums. They sold more than 75 million albums worldwide, with over twenty international hits. They didn't officially separate but Annie started a solo career in the 1990s. Her first solo album, Diva, was released in 1992 and sold around six million copies. Since then she has recorded several albums.

However, Annie Lennox isn't just a successful singer and musician. She is a dynamic charity fundraiser* and over the years has achieved many great results. In 2007, she recorded a fundraising single called Sing with a 23-member choir of female celebrities including Madonna, Shakira, kd lang, Dido and Celine Dion. The money they raised went to Treatment Action Campaign (TAC), an organisation which works on the African continent.

Multi-award winning Annie Lennox has come a long way since the 1980s when she was the singer with Eurythmics. Since then, she has become a successful solo artist and has raised money for many charities including Amnesty International, Greenpeace and Nelson Mandela's 46664 Foundation. She does a lot of her charity work through the internet, which she calls 'Laptop Activism', and encourages everyone to do something to make a difference.

*Fundraiser: someone who collects (or 'raises') money for charity by organising events

Neel Akash

Indian & Bangladeshi Restaurant

A

I was very happy to receive an invitation to the new Indian restaurant last week, so I called my dear friend Louis and we went to the Neel Akash, which means 'blue sky', to see what all the fuss was about.

B

The Neel Akash is near the town square at the end of Sussex Street, opposite the library. It is very central, so we walked there, but it is easy to get to from the train and bus stations and it also has its own car park.

C

The restaurant has only been open for two weeks, so it still feels very new. The décor is traditional with a lot of wood and dark reds and greens. The lighting isn't too bright and the atmosphere is warm and friendly. I particularly liked the flowers and candles on all the tables. There were already a lot of people there, so it was lively but not too noisy.

D

When we arrived, a pleasant young waiter showed us to our table which was in the window overlooking the garden. As soon as we sat down, another waiter brought the menu and took our drinks order. He explained the different dishes to us, recommended the specialities of the restaurant and then gave us some time to make our choices.

E

I love Indian food and wanted to taste everything, but in the end I ordered a selection of starters for us to share. We had shami kebab – spiced lamb, aloo chat – spicy potatoes, and egg akuri which is egg cooked with onions and served with bread. For my main course I had chicken tikka korma which is a mild chicken cooked in a cream sauce. I don't like very spicy food so that was hot enough for me. This came with delicious boiled rice and nan bread. My friend ordered a very spicy fish curry which he had with a side dish of raita which is yoghurt with cucumber. Everything looked perfect and tasted absolutely delicious.

F

When the bill came we were pleasantly surprised as it was very reasonable. We paid £20 per person which included drinks and a tip. For a cheaper option, you can have a buffet lunch during the week which costs £7.95 and you can eat as much as you like for that.

Hi Maria

How are you? I hope everything's OK over there and the sun is finally shining! It's been such a bad winter, hasn't it?!

This is the first time I've managed to get to an internet café, but I'm here now and have lots to tell you. I'm staying with friends of Dan's in Seattle. I didn't know them before I came here, but now I feel like part of the family. They've been so kind and have taken me all over the city.

It often rains here on the west coast, but the weather has been great since I've been here so I'm really lucky. On my first day, I decided to go downtown to walk along the water front. There's a famous market there called Pike Place Market. It's one of the oldest (over 100 years old) and biggest markets I've ever been to. I really couldn't believe my eyes! The colours and smells were just amazing. I had lunch in a restaurant called The Athenian where Tom Hanks ate in my favourite film Sleepless in Seattle. The views were fantastic, but the food wasn't that great.

I'm here for another week, so I want to visit some of the museums and galleries and maybe go to the theatre as well. We're going to the Space Needle (another big tourist attraction) for dinner this evening. The restaurant is at the top of the Needle and it moves round slowly so you can get a view of the whole city while you're eating. I'm really looking forward to it as they say the food is the best in the city.

Although I really like it here, I feel quite strange sometimes because of the language differences. I know we all speak English, but we don't really speak the same language at all. A lot of people here find it difficult to understand what I'm saying because of my accent and it's the same for me. And there are a lot of different words as well. Did you know that 'cookies' are 'biscuits' and 'pants' are 'trousers'?!

I think I can honestly say that I have never been to a country of so many superlatives. Everything here really is the biggest, the best, the smallest, the worst, the highest, the greatest. Welcome to America!

I've got to go now, but thanks again for looking after my flat (or is that apartment?!) while I'm here. I'll bring you back the best souvenir I can find!

Love

10 Read the article and complete the gaps (1–5) with the sentences (A–E).

Every month we invite our readers to write in and tell us about someone special in their lives. (0) This month's winning entry is by Richard Jackson.

I suppose when you're young you don't really think about the people around you.

(1) _____ Now that I'm a father, however, I think about things differently and I realise how lucky we were as children.

I grew up on a farm. I had two younger brothers and one older sister, so I was in the middle. Our father used to work very hard because it was his farm. (2) _____ Our mother used to teach at the local primary school so we spent a lot of time with our grandparents who lived with us.

Our grandmother was an amazing woman. She got married when she was very young and she had six children, which was quite usual in those days. She stayed at home to look after all of them, but when they were older she decided she wanted to go to university. She graduated when she was fifty years old. (3)

Before we were old enough to go to school, she used to look after us. (4) _____ She taught us to read and she told us stories about her life, but perhaps the most important thing she taught us was that we can do anything if we believe we can.

My grandmother died ten years ago, but when I look at my family now, I can still remember her words. (5)

Reading

- 9 Read the guide to Bratislava. According to the text, are the statements true (T), false (F) or not given (NG)?

Slovakia joined the European Union in 2004 and since then it has become more and more popular with international tourists. There are many beautiful cities to visit, but the best known, and the largest, is Bratislava with a population of around half a million. Not as well-known as other central European cities like Budapest, Prague and Vienna, however, Bratislava remains relatively unspoilt. It lies on the river Danube with neighbours Hungary to the south and Austria to the west.

There is something for everyone here. You have to visit the old town and the castle and you can spend hours walking through old streets looking at the wonderful architecture of the old buildings. There is an eleventh-century cathedral as well as many palaces, museums and art galleries.

If you enjoy films, you should come to the international film festival which takes place every year in November and December. In fact, there are many other film festivals during the year as well.

For shoppers, there are a lot of small shops and boutiques where you can easily spend many hours. And you shouldn't miss the Christmas markets in December where you can buy traditional decorations and try traditional Slovak food and drink. There's always a great atmosphere and it is certainly a pleasant way to meet the local people.

For people who are more interested in activity holidays, the nearby mountains offer great sporting opportunities. In the summer, you can go hiking or cycling along the excellent walking trails or if you are brave, you can go swimming in the icy mountain lakes. In the winter, the conditions are usually excellent for skiing. If you prefer to watch sport, then you can watch a noisy hockey game.

Bratislava offers all kinds of accommodation from cheap hostels to luxury hotels. The nightlife is exciting with clubs, bars and restaurants. So why wait? Come and see the beauty for yourself and we're sure you'll want to come back again and again.

10 Read the advice about dealing with stress. Who makes each suggestion (1–5)?

I've got some really important exams next week. If I don't get really good results, I won't get a place to study medicine at university and it has always been my dream to become a doctor. I'm not sleeping and I can't concentrate and I've lost my appetite as well. Can anyone offer me some good advice?

Desperate, Brighton

Have you tried yoga? I know it sounds crazy, but sometimes you really need to just close your mind and stop thinking. There are a lot of yoga books and DVDs around, so you don't have to join a class. Since I started doing yoga a year ago, I can't tell you how much my life has changed. You find some kind of inner quiet where your mind stops 'talking', you concentrate on your breathing and you feel energised afterwards.

Ronnie, Sydney

Physical exercise is really important for balance. Our lives are so busy these days. We have deadlines, targets, ambitions and challenges and while we are so busy following these dreams, we forget about balance. Most of us live in our heads all the time. If you're like me, you probably spend a lot of time at the computer or sitting with books and papers. You should take a break from studying at least once an hour. If you have a garden, go outside and just look at the flowers and trees and listen to the birds.

Max, Los Angeles

Sing! That's my advice. Put on your favourite music, dance and sing. Don't worry about the neighbours or the dog! Whenever I feel depressed or stressed I put on some music. Simple as that and I'll bet you fly through your exams.

Lydia, Jo'burg

Go to the gym as often as you can. Physically hard exercise makes you feel much more alive and focused. You should try to train at least four times a week and of course it's important to eat healthily as well. Try not to eat sweet things as the high you get from the sugar disappears very quickly.

Brad, Ontario

You need to switch off your brain so why don't you get some DVDs of your favourite comedies and treat yourself to an hour every day before you go to bed? Then you'll go to sleep feeling happy, not thinking about physics and chemistry. While you sleep your brain will process all the things you have learned during the day, but in a better way.

Hi Laura

It was great to get your email the other day with all your news. I'm so glad that things are going well with Paul. He sounds really nice. When can I meet him?!

Speaking of men ... guess what – I've met someone too! A friend of mine Carol (I don't think you've met her) suggested speed-dating as she's been on her own for a long time and she'd like to meet someone special now. Well, you know me ... I always enjoy doing different things, so I agreed to go. Actually, I wasn't looking for anyone for myself as I'm quite happy on my own, but I knew that Carol wouldn't go if I didn't go with her.

So, we arrived at the venue – it was a big private room in the town hall. We were a little early, so we sat down and had a drink. I think Carol was quite nervous. I didn't know what to expect so I felt fine! At 7 o'clock exactly, the organisers started the evening and they explained what we had to do. So, all the women sat down at small tables and the men walked around. We had three minutes to talk to each man. Some of them were really boring, but one or two were actually quite interesting. Well, one was very interesting! Then we changed places and the women walked round. It's a very strange way to meet people I must say, but at the end of the evening Martin came up to me and asked me out (you shouldn't really do that but he decided to break the rules!). I was very surprised, but I agreed to go and we went on our first date yesterday. He took me to his favourite Thai restaurant and as I love spicy food I was very happy with his choice! We didn't stop talking and the time went so quickly. He's taking me out again at the weekend. We're going to go for a picnic on the beach.

Who knows what might happen, but I certainly wasn't expecting anything like this. Unfortunately Carol didn't meet anyone, so I feel a bit bad as it was her idea in the first place.

Let's meet up next week and go for a pizza.

Love

Mel xx

A

I love travelling and one of the most interesting things about being in another country is the way we are all so different. It's clear that the Chinese way of life will be very different from that of a Brazilian, but it's amazing how many differences there are in countries which are closer to home.

B

It's always useful to do some research before you go travelling so you can avoid embarrassing situations. I've prepared some handy tips for anyone who is thinking of going to Bulgaria, one of the most beautiful countries in south-eastern Europe and a country where tourism isn't as well developed as in other places.

C

One of the most confusing experiences you can have is the simple 'yes/no'! When you think the person you're talking to is agreeing with you by nodding their head up and down, they are in fact disagreeing. If someone shakes their head from side to side that means 'yes'. So remember, yes is no and no is yes! I can't tell you how often I bought things I didn't want in the market because I'd forgotten this simple difference.

D

When you visit someone's house you should always take your shoes off as a sign of respect. Your host will probably offer you a pair of house shoes to wear. If you are going for a meal, it is customary to take flowers or some wine and remember if you buy flowers, don't take an even number (2, 4, 6, 8 etc.) as even numbers are for the dead. A Bulgarian meal can last many hours so it's important to follow some simple rules if you don't want to put on a lot of weight! If you finish everything on your plate, this is a sign that you are still hungry, so your host will give you more food. Eat slowly and make sure you leave a little on your plate and then you'll be fine!

E

As in any country, the local people are always so pleased if foreigners try to learn a few words of the language, so before you go, buy a phrase book and impress everyone with your knowledge! Although the written language uses the Cyrillic script, which you probably won't be able to read, you'll find that most people (especially the young) can now speak a little English.

F

So, go and have a fabulous holiday and remember 'when in Rome do as the Romans do'. I'm collecting information on customs around the world so would love to hear from anyone who has an interesting story to tell.

Hi Rab

Good to hear from you. I'm sorry I haven't written for ages, but I've been trying to organise stuff for college. I don't know what it's like in Germany, but here it's a bit of a nightmare now as you need so much money to go to university.

I'm lucky that my parents can help me out a bit, but I don't really want to ask them for money. The tuition fees are thousands of pounds a year and that's just for the course and then I have to find somewhere to live. Most students take out a loan from the bank, but then we have to pay it back when we graduate and that can take years if we don't manage to get a good job. And I don't even want to think about how much interest we have to pay on that money. So, I'll be in debt for some time unless I win the lottery!

I'm studying physics which is a three-year course and when I finish I'm going to apply for a scholarship to study in the US. That's the plan anyway. There are some very good research programmes over there and I think it would be fun to live abroad for a while. I know quite a few people who have studied in the States and they've loved it.

When school finishes in June, I'm going to get a summer job so I can try and save a bit of money before I head off. If I stay at home, I won't need to spend any money on food. I guess I could also sell my car because it's very expensive to run a car these days and I don't think I'll need it when I'm at college.

How do you manage Rab? Do you have a part-time job? What are university fees like in Germany? Is it the same as here or can you get a grant to help you?

We really must get together again soon as it's been a long time. Let me know what your plans are.

All the best

Work to live or live to work?

When you realise how much of your life you will spend working, it's important to make good choices when you think about the career you want to follow. Our parents retired when they were sixty or sixty-five but in the future the retirement age may rise to seventy which means that an average person will be in employment for about fifty years! It's a frightening thought if you're doing something you don't enjoy.

There are so many jobs to choose from and so much information available. You can do research on the internet, get advice from your school or college, ask friends and family or perhaps you'll be one of the lucky ones and know exactly what you want to do when you are very young. The majority of people aren't born, however, knowing that they want to be a musician or a writer or a surgeon or an explorer, so for them the choices are difficult.

If you want to run your own company, do you have the right personality? Are you determined, organised and motivated? If you want to be a teacher, do you love your subject? Are you patient and relaxed? Perhaps you want to be a journalist. Can you write well under pressure? Are you happy to travel and work long hours?

What is important to you? Do you want to have a high salary with a company car and a big bonus at the end of every year? Is your job title important? And what about the place where you work? How important is your relationship with your boss and the other employees? How important is the working environment? When people are asked these questions, interestingly money is hardly ever the most important factor.

So next time you pick up an application form, think about what you really want to achieve. You might find that you'll be happier working for less money with more free time. The question is, do we live to work or do we work to live?

Hi Luke

How are you? How's the new house? Are you enjoying the nightlife in Buenos Aires?

I started my new job last month so I now have a good routine. I'm enjoying the work, but it's hard because I get up early every day (you know how I like to stay in bed late!). I try and go for a swim most days before work because there's a gym and swimming pool in the building. It's relaxing and I feel very good after the exercise. I'm in the office at 8:30 and first of all I check my emails. You can't imagine how many emails I get every day! Because we're an international company with offices all over the world, we get a lot of emails during the night as well, so we're always busy. There's no time to sit and do nothing! I've got some really nice colleagues and we usually go for lunch together on Fridays. On the other days, I go shopping or I go for a walk when the sun's shining and sometimes I stay at my desk and have a quick sandwich – not very healthy I know.

I don't know many people here, so I like going out at the weekends. Of course I have a lie-in on Saturday and Sunday and if there's an interesting exhibition on, I go to that. I want to join some local clubs as well, maybe hiking or tennis.

I'm having a lazy day today because I'm really tired and it's raining. I stayed in bed until 11 o'clock and now I'm sitting at the computer and writing emails to friends. I'm staying with my cousin at the moment, but I really want my own apartment. It's quite stressful because everything is so expensive here, but I'm looking. My cousin is very kind, but she enjoys doing different things and her lifestyle is quite different from mine.

This evening we're going to a concert together. I'm not sure who is playing, but I think it's a classical concert.

When I have my new apartment, you must come down and stay with me! Write soon and give me your news.

Sing!

Today a lot of singers and actors use their fame to raise money for charity. You only have to go on the internet and you can see just how many things they do. A celebrity name at a charity event can raise thousands of dollars and it is a good way for these people to give something back to the world that has made them rich and famous.

One such person is Scottish singer songwriter Annie Lennox. She was born on 25 December 1954 into a poor family. She grew up and went to school in Aberdeen and when she was seventeen she moved to London and went to the Royal Academy of Music where she studied the flute and classical music for three years.

A few years later she met Dave Stewart and between 1977 and 1980 they were in a group, The Tourists, where she was the lead singer. When the band split up, Annie and Dave formed a new band: Eurythmics. Together they recorded several albums. They sold more than 75 million albums worldwide, with over twenty international hits. They didn't officially separate but Annie started a solo career in the 1990s. Her first solo album, Diva, was released in 1992 and sold around six million copies. Since then she has recorded several albums.

However, Annie Lennox isn't just a successful singer and musician. She is a dynamic charity fundraiser* and over the years has achieved many great results. In 2007, she recorded a fundraising single called Sing with a 23-member choir of female celebrities including Madonna, Shakira, kd lang, Dido and Celine Dion. The money they raised went to Treatment Action Campaign (TAC), an organisation which works on the African continent.

Multi-award winning Annie Lennox has come a long way since the 1980s when she was the singer with Eurythmics. Since then, she has become a successful solo artist and has raised money for many charities including Amnesty International, Greenpeace and Nelson Mandela's 46664 Foundation. She does a lot of her charity work through the internet, which she calls 'Laptop Activism', and encourages everyone to do something to make a difference.

*Fundraiser: someone who collects (or 'raises') money for charity by organising events

Neel Akash

Indian & Bangladeshi Restaurant

A

I was very happy to receive an invitation to the new Indian restaurant last week, so I called my dear friend Louis and we went to the Neel Akash, which means 'blue sky', to see what all the fuss was about.

B

The Neel Akash is near the town square at the end of Sussex Street, opposite the library. It is very central, so we walked there, but it is easy to get to from the train and bus stations and it also has its own car park.

C

The restaurant has only been open for two weeks, so it still feels very new. The décor is traditional with a lot of wood and dark reds and greens. The lighting isn't too bright and the atmosphere is warm and friendly. I particularly liked the flowers and candles on all the tables. There were already a lot of people there, so it was lively but not too noisy.

D

When we arrived, a pleasant young waiter showed us to our table which was in the window overlooking the garden. As soon as we sat down, another waiter brought the menu and took our drinks order. He explained the different dishes to us, recommended the specialities of the restaurant and then gave us some time to make our choices.

E

I love Indian food and wanted to taste everything, but in the end I ordered a selection of starters for us to share. We had shami kebab – spiced lamb, aloo chat – spicy potatoes, and egg akuri which is egg cooked with onions and served with bread. For my main course I had chicken tikka korma which is a mild chicken cooked in a cream sauce. I don't like very spicy food so that was hot enough for me. This came with delicious boiled rice and nan bread. My friend ordered a very spicy fish curry which he had with a side dish of raita which is yoghurt with cucumber. Everything looked perfect and tasted absolutely delicious.

F

When the bill came we were pleasantly surprised as it was very reasonable. We paid £20 per person which included drinks and a tip. For a cheaper option, you can have a buffet lunch during the week which costs £7.95 and you can eat as much as you like for that.

Hi Maria

How are you? I hope everything's OK over there and the sun is finally shining! It's been such a bad winter, hasn't it?!

This is the first time I've managed to get to an internet café, but I'm here now and have lots to tell you. I'm staying with friends of Dan's in Seattle. I didn't know them before I came here, but now I feel like part of the family. They've been so kind and have taken me all over the city.

It often rains here on the west coast, but the weather has been great since I've been here so I'm really lucky. On my first day, I decided to go downtown to walk along the water front. There's a famous market there called Pike Place Market. It's one of the oldest (over 100 years old) and biggest markets I've ever been to. I really couldn't believe my eyes! The colours and smells were just amazing. I had lunch in a restaurant called The Athenian where Tom Hanks ate in my favourite film Sleepless in Seattle. The views were fantastic, but the food wasn't that great.

I'm here for another week, so I want to visit some of the museums and galleries and maybe go to the theatre as well. We're going to the Space Needle (another big tourist attraction) for dinner this evening. The restaurant is at the top of the Needle and it moves round slowly so you can get a view of the whole city while you're eating. I'm really looking forward to it as they say the food is the best in the city.

Although I really like it here, I feel quite strange sometimes because of the language differences. I know we all speak English, but we don't really speak the same language at all. A lot of people here find it difficult to understand what I'm saying because of my accent and it's the same for me. And there are a lot of different words as well. Did you know that 'cookies' are 'biscuits' and 'pants' are 'trousers'?!

I think I can honestly say that I have never been to a country of so many superlatives. Everything here really is the biggest, the best, the smallest, the worst, the highest, the greatest. Welcome to America!

I've got to go now, but thanks again for looking after my flat (or is that apartment?!) while I'm here. I'll bring you back the best souvenir I can find!

2 Read the guide to Bratislava. According to the text, are the statements true (T), false (F) or not given (NG)?

Slovakia joined the European Union in 2004 and since then it has become more and more popular with international tourists. There are many beautiful cities to visit, but the best known, and the largest, is Bratislava with a population of around half a million. Not as well-known as other central European cities like Budapest, Prague and Vienna, however, Bratislava remains relatively unspoilt. It lies on the river Danube with neighbours Hungary to the south and Austria to the west.

There is something for everyone here. You have to visit the old town and the castle and you can spend hours walking through old streets looking at the wonderful architecture of the old buildings. There is an eleventh-century cathedral as well as many palaces, museums and art galleries.

If you enjoy films, you should come to the international film festival which takes place every year in November and December. In fact, there are many other film festivals during the year as well.

For shoppers, there are a lot of small shops and boutiques where you can easily spend many hours. And you shouldn't miss the Christmas markets in December where you can buy traditional decorations and try traditional Slovak food and drink. There's always a great atmosphere and it is certainly a pleasant way to meet the local people.

For people who are more interested in activity holidays, the nearby mountains offer great sporting opportunities. In the summer, you can go hiking or cycling along the excellent walking trails or if you are brave, you can go swimming in the icy mountain lakes. In the winter, the conditions are usually excellent for skiing. If you prefer to watch sport, then you can watch a noisy hockey game.

Bratislava offers all kinds of accommodation from cheap hostels to luxury hotels. The nightlife is exciting with clubs, bars and restaurants. So why wait? Come and see the beauty for yourself and we're sure you'll want to come back again and again.

Millions of tourists visit Bratislava every year. _NG_

- 1 Bratislava is the capital of Slovakia. _____
 - 2 The cathedral is about a thousand years old. _____
 - 3 There is one film festival a year. _____
 - 4 It's easy to meet local people at the Christmas market. _____
 - 5 You can do a lot of sport in Bratislava. _____

I've got some really important exams next week. If I don't get really good results, I won't get a place to study medicine at university and it has always been my dream to become a doctor. I'm not sleeping and I can't concentrate and I've lost my appetite as well. Can anyone offer me some good advice?

Desperate, Brighton

Have you tried yoga? I know it sounds crazy, but sometimes you really need to just close your mind and stop thinking. There are a lot of yoga books and DVDs around, so you don't have to join a class. Since I started doing yoga a year ago, I can't tell you how much my life has changed. You find some kind of inner quiet where your mind stops 'talking', you concentrate on your breathing and you feel energised afterwards.

Ronnie, Sydney

Physical exercise is really important for balance. Our lives are so busy these days. We have deadlines, targets, ambitions and challenges and while we are so busy following these dreams, we forget about balance. Most of us live in our heads all the time. If you're like me, you probably spend a lot of time at the computer or sitting with books and papers. You should take a break from studying at least once an hour. If you have a garden, go outside and just look at the flowers and trees and listen to the birds.

Max, Los Angeles

Sing! That's my advice. Put on your favourite music, dance and sing. Don't worry about the neighbours or the dog! Whenever I feel depressed or stressed I put on some music. Simple as that and I'll bet you fly through your exams.

Go to the gym as often as you can. Physically hard exercise makes you feel much more alive and focused. You should try to train at least four times a week and of course it's important to eat healthily as well. Try not to eat sweet things as the high you get from the sugar disappears very quickly.

Brad, Ontario

You need to switch off your brain so why don't you get some DVDs of your favourite comedies and treat yourself to an hour every day before you go to bed? Then you'll go to sleep feeling happy, not thinking about physics and chemistry. While you sleep your brain will process all the things you have learned during the day, but in a better way.

Hi Laura

It was great to get your email the other day with all your news. I'm so glad that things are going well with Paul. He sounds really nice. When can I meet him?!

Speaking of men ... guess what – I've met someone too! A friend of mine Carol (I don't think you've met her) suggested speed-dating as she's been on her own for a long time and she'd like to meet someone special now. Well, you know me ... I always enjoy doing different things, so I agreed to go. Actually, I wasn't looking for anyone for myself as I'm quite happy on my own, but I knew that Carol wouldn't go if I didn't go with her.

So, we arrived at the venue – it was a big private room in the town hall. We were a little early, so we sat down and had a drink. I think Carol was quite nervous. I didn't know what to expect so I felt fine! At 7 o'clock exactly, the organisers started the evening and they explained what we had to do. So, all the women sat down at small tables and the men walked around. We had three minutes to talk to each man. Some of them were really boring, but one or two were actually quite interesting. Well, one was very interesting!

Then we changed places and the women walked round. It's a very strange way to meet people I must say, but at the end of the evening Martin came up to me and asked me out (you shouldn't really do that but he decided to break the rules!). I was very surprised, but I agreed to go and we went on our first date yesterday. He took me to his favourite Thai restaurant and as I love spicy food I was very happy with his choice! We didn't stop talking and the time went so quickly. He's taking me out again at the weekend. We're going to go for a picnic on the beach.

Who knows what might happen, but I certainly wasn't expecting anything like this. Unfortunately Carol didn't meet anyone, so I feel a bit bad as it was her idea in the first place.

Let's meet up next week and go for a pizza.

Work to live or live to work?

When you realise how much of your life you will spend working, it's important to make good choices when you think about the career you want to follow. Our parents retired when they were sixty or sixty-five but in the future the retirement age may rise to seventy which means that an average person will be in employment for about fifty years! It's a frightening thought if you're doing something you don't enjoy.

There are so many jobs to choose from and so much information available. You can do research on the internet, get advice from your school or college, ask friends and family or perhaps you'll be one of the lucky ones and know exactly what you want to do when you are very young. The majority of people aren't born, however, knowing that they want to be a musician or a writer or a surgeon or an explorer, so for them the choices are difficult.

If you want to run your own company, do you have the right personality? Are you determined, organised and motivated? If you want to be a teacher, do you love your subject? Are you patient and relaxed? Perhaps you want to be a journalist. Can you write well under pressure? Are you happy to travel and work long hours?

What is important to you? Do you want to have a high salary with a company car and a big bonus at the end of every year? Is your job title important? And what about the place where you work? How important is your relationship with your boss and the other employees? How important is the working environment? When people are asked these questions, interestingly money is hardly ever the most important factor.

So next time you pick up an application form, think about what you really want to achieve. You might find that you'll be happier working for less money with more free time. The question is, do we live to work or do we work to live?

In the future, people will retire _a_ .

- a when they are older than 65
 - b when they're 60
 - c when they're 65
 - 1 A normal person _____ .
 - a enjoys their job
 - b will work for most of their adult life
 - c is afraid of working hard
 - 2 Most people _____ .
 - a know what they want to do when they are young
 - b are very young when they decide
 - c don't know what they want to do when they are young
 - 3 When you choose a career, it's important _____ .
 - a to understand your personality
 - b to be the best
 - c to work under pressure
 - 4 For most people, the salary _____ .
 - a is the most important thing
 - b isn't very important
 - c isn't important at all
 - 5 When you apply for a job, you should _____ .
 - a ask for more free time
 - b offer to work for less money
 - c think about what is most important to you

Reading

10 Read the travel tips. Match the headings (1–5) with the paragraphs (A–F).

A

I love travelling and one of the most interesting things about being in another country is the way we are all so different. It's clear that the Chinese way of life will be very different from that of a Brazilian, but it's amazing how many differences there are in countries which are closer to home.

B

It's always useful to do some research before you go travelling so you can avoid embarrassing situations. I've prepared some handy tips for anyone who is thinking of going to Bulgaria, one of the most beautiful countries in south-eastern Europe and a country where tourism isn't as well developed as in other places.

C

One of the most confusing experiences you can have is the simple 'yes/no'! When you think the person you're talking to is agreeing with you by nodding their head up and down, they are in fact disagreeing. If someone shakes their head from side to side that means 'yes'. So remember, yes is no and no is yes! I can't tell you how often I bought things I didn't want in the market because I'd forgotten this simple difference.

D

When you visit someone's house you should always take your shoes off as a sign of respect. Your host will probably offer you a pair of house shoes to wear. If you are going for a meal, it is customary to take flowers or some wine and remember if you buy flowers, don't take an even number (2, 4, 6, 8 etc.) as even numbers are for the dead. A Bulgarian meal can last many hours so it's important to follow some simple rules if you don't want to put on a lot of weight! If you finish everything on your plate, this is a sign that you are still hungry, so your host will give you more food. Eat slowly and make sure you leave a little on your plate and then you'll be fine!

E

As in any country, the local people are always so pleased if foreigners try to learn a few words of the language, so before you go, buy a phrase book and impress everyone with your knowledge! Although the written language uses the Cyrillic script, which you probably won't be able to read, you'll find that most people (especially the young) can now speak a little English.

F

So, go and have a fabulous holiday and remember 'when in Rome do as the Romans do'. I'm collecting information on customs around the world so would love to hear from anyone who has an interesting story to tell.

The joys of travel. A

1 Simple communication can be difficult. _____

Hi Rab

Good to hear from you. I'm sorry I haven't written for ages, but I've been trying to organise stuff for college. I don't know what it's like in Germany, but here it's a bit of a nightmare now as you need so much money to go to university.

I'm lucky that my parents can help me out a bit, but I don't really want to ask them for money. The tuition fees are thousands of pounds a year and that's just for the course and then I have to find somewhere to live. Most students take out a loan from the bank, but then we have to pay it back when we graduate and that can take years if we don't manage to get a good job. And I don't even want to think about how much interest we have to pay on that money. So, I'll be in debt for some time unless I win the lottery!

I'm studying physics which is a three-year course and when I finish I'm going to apply for a scholarship to study in the US. That's the plan anyway. There are some very good research programmes over there and I think it would be fun to live abroad for a while. I know quite a few people who have studied in the States and they've loved it.

When school finishes in June, I'm going to get a summer job so I can try and save a bit of money before I head off. If I stay at home, I won't need to spend any money on food. I guess I could also sell my car because it's very expensive to run a car these days and I don't think I'll need it when I'm at college.

How do you manage Rab? Do you have a part-time job? What are university fees like in Germany? Is it the same as here or can you get a grant to help you?

We really must get together again soon as it's been a long time. Let me know what your plans are.

All the best

Hi Laura

It was great to get your email the other day with all your news. I'm so glad that things are going well with Paul. He sounds really nice. When can I meet him?!

Speaking of men ... guess what – I've met someone too! A friend of mine Carol (I don't think you've met her) suggested speed-dating as she's been on her own for a long time and she'd like to meet someone special now. Well, you know me ... I always enjoy doing different things, so I agreed to go. Actually, I wasn't looking for anyone for myself as I'm quite happy on my own, but I knew that Carol wouldn't go if I didn't go with her.

So, we arrived at the venue – it was a big private room in the town hall. We were a little early, so we sat down and had a drink. I think Carol was quite nervous. I didn't know what to expect so I felt fine! At 7 o'clock exactly, the organisers started the evening and they explained what we had to do. So, all the women sat down at small tables and the men walked around. We had three minutes to talk to each man. Some of them were really boring, but one or two were actually quite interesting. Well, one was very interesting! Then we changed places and the women walked round. It's a very strange way to meet people I must say, but at the end of the evening Martin came up to me and asked me out (you shouldn't really do that but he decided to break the rules!). I was very surprised, but I agreed to go and we went on our first date yesterday. He took me to his favourite Thai restaurant and as I love spicy food I was very happy with his choice! We didn't stop talking and the time went so quickly. He's taking me out again at the weekend. We're going to go for a picnic on the beach.

Who knows what might happen, but I certainly wasn't expecting anything like this. Unfortunately Carol didn't meet anyone, so I feel a bit bad as it was her idea in the first place.

Let's meet up next week and go for a pizza.

Love

10 Read the travel tips. Match the headings (1–5) with the paragraphs (A–F).

A

I love travelling and one of the most interesting things about being in another country is the way we are all so different. It's clear that the Chinese way of life will be very different from that of a Brazilian, but it's amazing how many differences there are in countries which are closer to home.

B

It's always useful to do some research before you go travelling so you can avoid embarrassing situations. I've prepared some handy tips for anyone who is thinking of going to Bulgaria, one of the most beautiful countries in south-eastern Europe and a country where tourism isn't as well developed as in other places.

C

One of the most confusing experiences you can have is the simple 'yes/no'! When you think the person you're talking to is agreeing with you by nodding their head up and down, they are in fact disagreeing. If someone shakes their head from side to side that means 'yes'. So remember, yes is no and no is yes! I can't tell you how often I bought things I didn't want in the market because I'd forgotten this simple difference.

D

When you visit someone's house you should always take your shoes off as a sign of respect. Your host will probably offer you a pair of house shoes to wear. If you are going for a meal, it is customary to take flowers or some wine and remember if you buy flowers, don't take an even number (2, 4, 6, 8 etc.) as even numbers are for the dead. A Bulgarian meal can last many hours so it's important to follow some simple rules if you don't want to put on a lot of weight! If you finish everything on your plate, this is a sign that you are still hungry, so your host will give you more food. Eat slowly and make sure you leave a little on your plate and then you'll be fine!

E

As in any country, the local people are always so pleased if foreigners try to learn a few words of the language, so before you go, buy a phrase book and impress everyone with your knowledge! Although the written language uses the Cyrillic script, which you probably won't be able to read, you'll find that most people (especially the young) can now speak a little English.

F

So, go and have a fabulous holiday and remember 'when in Rome do as the Romans do'. I'm collecting information on customs around the world so would love to hear from anyone who has an interesting story to tell.

Hi Rab

Good to hear from you. I'm sorry I haven't written for ages, but I've been trying to organise stuff for college. I don't know what it's like in Germany, but here it's a bit of a nightmare now as you need so much money to go to university.

I'm lucky that my parents can help me out a bit, but I don't really want to ask them for money. The tuition fees are thousands of pounds a year and that's just for the course and then I have to find somewhere to live. Most students take out a loan from the bank, but then we have to pay it back when we graduate and that can take years if we don't manage to get a good job. And I don't even want to think about how much interest we have to pay on that money. So, I I'll be in debt for some time unless I win the lottery!

I'm studying physics which is a three-year course and when I finish I'm going to apply for a scholarship to study in the US. That's the plan anyway. There are some very good research programmes over there and I think it would be fun to live abroad for a while. I know quite a few people who have studied in the States and they've loved it.

When school finishes in June, I'm going to get a summer job so I can try and save a bit of money before I head off. If I stay at home, I won't need to spend any money on food. I guess I could also sell my car because it's very expensive to run a car these days and I don't think I'll need it when I'm at college.

How do you manage Rab? Do you have a part-time job? What are university fees like in Germany? Is it the same as here or can you get a grant to help you?

We really must get together again soon as it's been a long time. Let me know what your plans are.

All the best

Mario

Reading9 Read the article. Choose the correct answers, according to the text.*Work to live or live to work?

When you realise how much of your life you will spend working, it's important to make good choices when you think about the career you want to follow. Our parents retired when they were sixty or sixty-five but in the future the retirement age may rise to seventy which means that an average person will be in employment for about fifty years! It's a frightening thought if you're doing something you don't enjoy.

There are so many jobs to choose from and so much information available. You can do research on the internet, get advice from your school or college, ask friends and family or perhaps you'll be one of the lucky ones and know exactly what you want to do when you are very young. The majority of people aren't born, however, knowing that they want to be a musician or a writer or a surgeon or an explorer, so for them the choices are difficult.

If you want to run your own company, do you have the right personality? Are you determined, organised and motivated? If you want to be a teacher, do you love your subject? Are you patient and relaxed? Perhaps you want to be a journalist. Can you write well under pressure? Are you happy to travel and work long hours?

What is important to you? Do you want to have a high salary with a company car and a big bonus at the end of every year? Is your job title important? And what about the place where you work? How important is your relationship with your boss and the other employees? How important is the working environment? When people are asked these questions, interestingly money is hardly ever the most important factor. So next time you pick up an application form, think about what you really want to achieve. You might find that you'll be happier working for less money with more free time. The question is, do we live to work or do we work to live?

5. Методические указания для обучающихся по освоению дисциплины (модуля)

5.1 Методические указания по организации самостоятельной работы обучающихся:

Приступая к изучению дисциплины, в первую очередь обучающимся необходимо ознакомиться содержанием рабочей программы дисциплины (РПД), которая определяет содержание, объем, а также порядок изучения и преподавания учебной дисциплины, ее раздела, части.

Для самостоятельной работы важное значение имеют разделы «Объем и содержание дисциплины», «Учебно-методическое и информационное обеспечение дисциплины» и «Материально-техническое обеспечение дисциплины, программное обеспечение, профессиональные базы данных и информационные справочные системы».

В разделе «Объем и содержание дисциплины» указываются все разделы и темы изучаемой дисциплины, а также виды занятий и планируемый объем в академических часах.

В разделе «Учебно-методическое и информационное обеспечение дисциплины» указана рекомендуемая основная и дополнительная литература.

В разделе «Материально-техническое обеспечение дисциплины, программное обеспечение, профессиональные базы данных и информационные справочные системы» содержится перечень профессиональных баз данных и информационных справочных систем, необходимых для освоения дисциплины.

5.2 Рекомендации обучающимся по работе с теоретическими материалами по дисциплине

При изучении и проработке теоретического материала необходимо:

- просмотреть еще раз презентацию лекции в системе MOODLe, повторить законспектированный на лекционном занятии материал и дополнить его с учетом рекомендованной дополнительной литературы;
- при самостоятельном изучении теоретической темы сделать конспект, используя рекомендованные в РПД источники, профессиональные базы данных и информационные справочные системы;
- ответить на вопросы для самостоятельной работы, по теме представленные в пункте 3.2 РПД.
- при подготовке к текущему контролю использовать материалы фонда оценочных средств (ФОС).

5.3 Рекомендации по работе с научной и учебной литературой

Работа с основной и дополнительной литературой является главной формой самостоятельной работы и необходима при подготовке к устному опросу на семинарских занятиях, к дебатам, тестированию, экзамену. Она включает проработку лекционного материала и рекомендованных источников и литературы по тематике лекций.

Конспект лекции должен содержать реферативную запись основных вопросов лекции, в том числе с опорой на размещенные в системе MOODLe презентации, основных источников и литературы по темам, выводы по каждому вопросу. Конспект может быть выполнен в рамках распечатки выдачи презентаций лекций или в отдельной тетради по предмету. Он должен быть аккуратным, хорошо читаемым, не содержать не относящуюся к теме информацию или рисунки.

Конспекты научной литературы при самостоятельной подготовке к занятиям должны содержать ответы на каждый поставленный в теме вопрос, иметь ссылку на источник информации с обязательным указанием автора, названия и года издания используемой научной литературы. Конспект может быть опорным (содержать лишь основные ключевые позиции), но при этом позволяющим дать полный ответ по вопросу, может быть подробным. Объем конспекта определяется самим студентом.

В процессе работы с основной и дополнительной литературой студент может:

- делать записи по ходу чтения в виде простого или развернутого плана (создавать перечень основных вопросов, рассмотренных в источнике);
- составлять тезисы (цитирование наиболее важных мест статьи или монографии, короткое изложение основных мыслей автора);
- готовить аннотации (краткое обобщение основных вопросов работы);
- создавать конспекты (развернутые тезисы).

5.4. Рекомендации по подготовке к отдельным заданиям текущего контроля

Собеседование предполагает организацию беседы преподавателя со студентами по вопросам практического занятия с целью более обстоятельного выявления их знаний по определенному разделу, теме, проблеме и т.п. Все члены группы могут участвовать в обсуждении, добавлять информацию, дискутировать, задавать вопросы и т.д.

Устный опрос может применяться в различных формах: фронтальный, индивидуальный, комбинированный. Основные качества устного ответа подлежащего оценке:

- правильность ответа по содержанию;
- полнота и глубина ответа;
- сознательность ответа;
- логика изложения материала;
- рациональность использованных приемов и способов решения поставленной учебной задачи;
- своевременность и эффективность использования наглядных пособий и технических средств при ответе;
- использование дополнительного материала;
- рациональность использования времени, отведенного на задание.

Устный опрос может сопровождаться презентацией, которая подготавливается по одному из вопросов практического занятия. При выступлении с презентацией необходимо обращать внимание на такие моменты как:

- содержание презентации: актуальность темы, полнота ее раскрытия, смысловое содержание, соответствие заявленной темы содержанию, соответствие методическим требованиям (цели, ссылки на ресурсы, соответствие содержания и литературы), практическая направленность, соответствие содержания заявленной форме, адекватность использования технических средств учебным задачам, последовательность и логичность презентуемого материала;
- оформление презентации: объем (оптимальное количество), дизайн (читаемость, наличие и соответствие графики и анимации, звуковое оформление, структурирование информации, соответствие заявленным требованиям), оригинальность оформления, эстетика, использование возможности программной среды, соответствие стандартам оформления;
- личностные качества: ораторские способности, соблюдение регламента, эмоциональность, умение ответить на вопросы, систематизированные, глубокие и полные знания по всем разделам программы;
- содержание выступления: логичность изложения материала, раскрытие темы, доступность изложения, эффективность применения средств ИКТ, способы и условия достижения результативности и эффективности для выполнения задач своей профессиональной или учебной деятельности, доказательность принимаемых решений, умение аргументировать свои заключения, выводы.

7. Материально-техническое обеспечение дисциплины, программное обеспечение, профессиональные базы данных и информационные справочные системы

Для проведения занятий по дисциплине необходимо следующее материально-техническое обеспечение: учебные аудитории для проведения занятий лекционного и семинарского типа, групповых и индивидуальных консультаций, текущего контроля и промежуточной аттестации, помещения для самостоятельной работы.

Учебные аудитории и помещения для самостоятельной работы укомплектованы специализированной мебелью и техническими средствами обучения, служащими для представления учебной информации большой аудитории.

Помещения для самостоятельной работы укомплектованы компьютерной техникой с возможностью подключения к сети "Интернет" и обеспечением доступа в электронную информационно-образовательную среду Университета.

Для проведения занятий лекционного типа используются наборы демонстрационного оборудования, обеспечивающие тематические иллюстрации (проектор, ноутбук, экран/ интерактивная доска).
